Reflections from Fr. Martin ~ The Third Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ January 21st, 2024

The invitation of today is crystal-clear: To not let our feelings of unworthiness keep us from accepting God's offer of love. In the first reading the people of Nineveh appealed to, and accepted, God's offer of mercy in spite of the sinfulness which nearly led to their self-destruction, and the apostles in today's gospel accepted Jesus' call to be his apostles and among the very first disciples and in spite of their seeming unworthiness as poor fishermen of Galilee. Two of the most extreme examples of history: neither group let their feelings of unworthiness get in the way. So how can we?

Do we feel unworthiness for receiving God's forgiveness? Maybe that means we still need to forgive ourselves.

Maybe that means we still need to forgive someone else. Maybe that means we still have to trust that God's mercy will always be infinitely greater than whatever wrong choice we may have made. Maybe that means we still need to let go of something in our lives we already know is causing harm. Maybe that means we have yet to see the redemptive value of our past by incorporating the hard lessons learned from our missteps into insuring that we live the rest of our lives more completely.

Do we feel unworthy to be God's disciples? Maybe that means we still need to receive God's forgiveness (see above!). Maybe that means we have not yet seen the very act of God forgiving us as our greatest opportunity to show others that God is also offering his forgiving transformative love to them. Maybe that means we do not trust in our unique God-given talents can be used in helping others seek the joy of the gospel. Maybe that means we haven't yet taken the opportunities we already know of to serve those who are depending on our help. Maybe that means that we don't fully believe that God will always be with us to give us what we need to fulfill our purpose (often at the most unexpected moments).

Do we feel unworthy to enjoy God's blessings? Maybe that means we still need to receive God's forgiveness (see above!). Maybe that means we have yet to accept that we are each in our own unique way the beloved children of the one true God who desires our happiness (more than we desire it for ourselves) and has already given us so very much!

Yes we can struggle with the feeling of unworthiness because we still could be working on overcoming one struggle or another—but that's precisely why we can't allow that feeling to get in the way of accepting God's offer of love in all things. In the process we will not only be living our lives to the fullest but also we can become more worthy.

- Father Marty

- Colossians 3:14

My Sisters and Brothers in Christ,
I am pleased to share with you the 2024 Diocesan Services Appeal theme, Give us this day our daily bread (Matthew 6:11). This theme embraces the current phase of the National Eucharistic Revival that focuses on fostering Eucharistic devotion at the parish level and strengthening our liturgical life through faithful celebration of the Mass. An additional milestone being commemorated this year is the 40th anniversary of the establishment of our Diocese, during which we have steadfastly served our communities as a Eucharistic people.

Your faithful support of the Diocesan Services Appeal, both prayerfully and financially, allows the Diocese of Palm Beach to fulfill the Gospel mandate of loving God and neighbor. Our Diocesan family, comprising 54 parishes and missions in five counties, is united in our mission of service to the People of God.

By supporting the DSA, you will help make a definite difference in the lives of your neighbors, for which I would be deeply grateful. Your generosity will sustain our tradition of sharing and bringing hope to others.

I prayerfully ask you again to consider a gift to this year's Diocesan Services Appeal. Your participation in the appeal is a vital part of our ability to provide services for our Diocese and for those in need. Please know that I am praying for God's blessings on you and your family.

With every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach
