A brief reflection in preparation during these last few days of Lent: All too easily we can become like the Pharisees and the Sadducees; we can become slaves to the law of the gospel and miss what its message of hope and new life are really about. Pope Francis offers these words of warning to us, ‘people rigidly bound to the law suffer pain, pride and often live a double life. God’s laws are not meant to make us slaves but to make us free, to make us sons and daughters of God. God prefers mercy, tenderness, goodness and humility. May the Lord teach each of us to walk within the Lord’s laws with these ways.

Jesus is not asking us to break the law, particularly the law of the gospel. He is calling us to go beyond the letter of the law and to deepen our appreciation of the message of the gospel. The good news of the gospel is more a matter of the heart than it is matter of the head. May we love the Lord, ourselves and our neighbors with all our heart, all our soul and all our mind.

JUST A LITTLE
Reminder

Although Fr. Martin could only appreciate everyone's presence for liturgies, we must all remember that we are visiting God Himself. Therefore, men should always wear at least a collared shirt as well as slacks, and women should always wear either dresses or appropriate slacks and blouses.

This is not so-much because of modesty (important as that is), but because of respect.

The consensus of Biblical scholars agree that the reason Saint Peter put on his outer garments in John 21:7 was to show respect, as he knew he was approaching God. Thank you for your consideration.

St. Barbara Melkite Mission

Representatives from St. Barbara Catholic Melkite Mission are visiting our parish this weekend. They will speak to us very briefly for a couple minutes about their mission and what they do to support our Catholic brothers and sisters in the Holy Land. They will also have a display in the Parish Hall of beautiful religious articles handmade by our Catholic community over there. Thank you for your support and God bless.

It's More Than a Tootsie Roll!!

When you see Knights in yellow vests that read "Helping People with Intellectual Disabilities," you should smile! When these Knights are holding their bright cans and collecting donations around town, they are helping to recognize the dignity in every person.

In past years, The Tootsie Roll Drive resulted in $2,000 in checks being delivered to both ARC Aid – Martin County; and to The Willoughby Learning Center. Please be as generous as you are able in this year's drive.

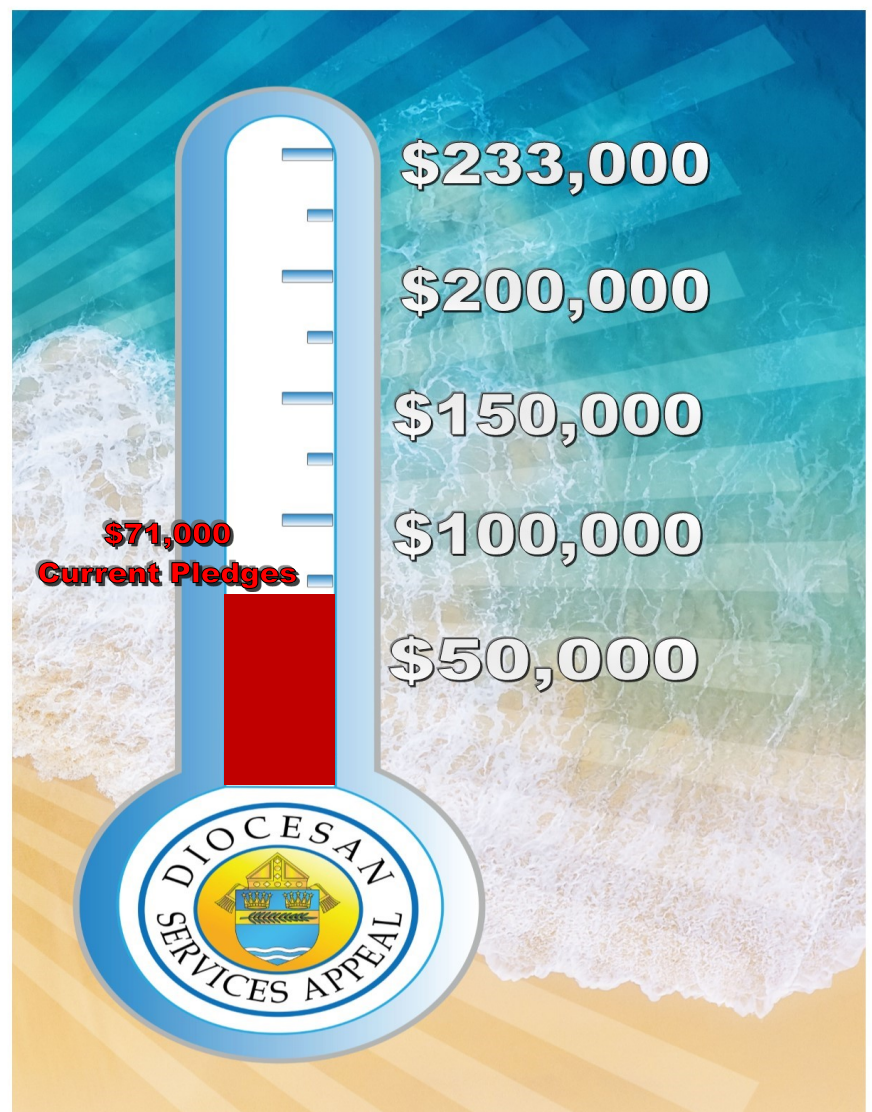

Knights will be in the Courtyard after all Masses THIS Weekend, February 10th & 11th.

Thank you for your ongoing generosity toward the annual Diocesan Services Appeal!
Please remember:
