In John's account of Jesus' triumphant entry in Jerusalem (often read Palm Sunday), it notes that, "the disciples did not understand this at first." And who can blame them? Jesus predicted several times before that he would face a humiliating death in Jerusalem, and he still entered Jerusalem... and on a colt no less! We may still struggle with a lack of full understanding of, "Why did Jesus, the innocent Son of God, King of Kings have to endure the crucifixion?" Or, in the context of our unique individual lives, the question that we painfully ask over and over, "Why does it have to be this painful /difficult /frustrating / disappointing/etc.?" While we may not get the full explanations until we get to heaven, answering this question will help us through it all—just like it did for Jesus: "What is our identity?"

It was because Jesus knew his identity that he was able to face the events leading to his Passion, Death and Resurrection, which we commemorate this week, the greatest gesture of love of all time, so the worst damage caused by Original Sin can be undone. The keystone moment of his identification was Jesus' own Baptism, where he was identified by God the Father as "my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased" (Mt. 3:17). Jesus did what he had to because he knew his identity. Likewise, this Holy Thursday, Jesus reminds us of our identity, which we also received at our baptisms. At the Last Supper he identified us as his, friends (Jn 15:15) & immediately before this he states there is, "no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends."

So when it feels like we have nothing else, we can, and must, cling to the reality of our identity. This reality assures us that we are in the loving care of God and that we will ultimately be saved by counting on God's help as we strive to be faithful to our identity in living our universal discipleship (& our unique vocations) at each moment—however difficult, painful, or routine! This is because we do so out of the greatest love possible—a love, which in many forms, invites us to lay down our lives for our friends!

But it is also by living our identity we express our convictions: that we do indeed have the help of God, either directly such as in the sacraments, or indirectly through those around us. Our particular identity is not only our path to our salvation but also our path to our greatest peace & joy possible in our life, because we are striving to live both our universal identity as disciples and the unique purpose no one else in time was created to fulfill—all of which can offer a great peace which can turn the most simple gesture of love into an unexpected occasion of fulfillment! May God Bless you this Holy Week, and every day as you live your identity!

~ Father Marty

REFURBISHING OUR CHURCH . . .

- Replacing the Church's 30+ year old sound system (there are system-wide malfunctions at least monthly and many parts no longer function).
- Replacing the main sanctuary tabernacle (it is not conducive with the rest of our elegant sanctuary, and has become quite dirty over 30+ years).
- Install elegant tempered glass floor-to-ceiling (ADA compliant) doors between vestibule and nave so those praying before and after liturgies are no longer distracted by conversations of people entering and exiting church buildings.
- Affix video monitors to sanctuary walls so congregation can read/sing along in liturgy.
- Replace ragged, unsanitary 30+ year old nave carpeting.

. . . AND REFURBISHING OUR PARISH HALL!

Our 40-year-old Parish Hall will be getting some seriously-needed attention. We aspire to transform our parish hall into a vibrant, versatile space that can accommodate various social events, fostering a sense of community at enjoyable and memorable functions.

Also, a new covered walkway is planned to allow safe, sheltered drop-off/pick-up for all Masses and parish events.

Blessing of Easter Food
Saturday,
March 30th at 1:00PM
In the Sacristy of the Main Church.

The blessing of the Easter Basket containing the food for the first meal of Easter has been a beloved Catholic ritual for centuries among families of Eastern European origin. This tradition has since been adopted by people of all ethnic backgrounds, who enjoy its rich symbolism. On Holy Saturday morning, families prepare their Easter Baskets and fill them with symbolic items. The baskets are later brought to church to be blessed during a short service in the early afternoon. After Easter Sunday's Resurrection Mass, each family and their guests share their blessed fare and exchange good wishes.

The custom of blessing the Easter foods arose from the strict Lenten fasting of the past, when meat, eggs, fats, and other foods were forbidden during Lent. Easter was thus greeted with great joy as the day when Christ arose and when fasts were ended. The Church's joy and thanksgiving were expressed in this custom of blessing the foods for the first meal of Easter.

Traditionally, the baskets are filled with: decorated hardboiled eggs (representing Christ's Resurrection); lamb-shaped butter or sugar (representing Christ as the "Lamb of God"); bread (reminding us that Jesus is the "Bread of Life"); meats, such as ham (symbolic of great joy and abundance), sausage (symbolic of God's favor and generosity), smoked bacon (symbolic of the overabundance of God's mercy), or lamb (representing Christ as the "Lamb of God"); salt (symbolic of prosperity and justice, and reminding us that we are "the salt of the earth"); cheese (symbolizing the moderation Christians should have at all times); horseradish, pepper, oil, and vinegar (symbolic of the Passion of Christ and the bitter herbs of the Passover); and wine (symbolic of the Blood of the Lord).
